

Connecticut Water installed more than 20 miles of water main in 2025 as part of ongoing efforts to increase service reliability, address aging infrastructure and improve water quality so customers continue to receive high-quality water meeting all state and federal guidelines well into the future.

January 5, 2026